

Pianist and composer Kate Wyatt is one of the top tier jazz musicians in the city of Montreal. She has been hailed as an “excellent pianist [who] could be one of the top artists of Montreal, Quebec, or even Canadian jazz.” (Alain Brunet, panm360.com). A veteran of many festivals and jazz clubs nationally and internationally, Kate has been invited to perform with many recognized and respected musicians, including Kenny Wheeler, Niki Haris, Yanick Rieu, Christine Jensen, Joe Sullivan, Itamar Borochoy, Ranee Lee, Dave Turner, Barry Elmes, Al McLean, Don Thompson, and the Orchestre national de jazz de Montreal (ONJ).

Kate has a multitude of recordings under her belt, both as a co-leader and accompanist, including jazz albums, pop projects as well as music for film and television. Her latest release, Kate Wyatt Artifact, featuring Lex French (trumpet), Adrian Vedady (bass) and Jim Dexas (drums), will be released in Summer of 2022.

Kate has a passion for improvisation and innovation, and she strives for a high level of sensitivity and interaction in her performances. Her music has been recognized with awards from the Conseil des arts et des lettres du Québec, and the Canada Council for the Arts. She currently leads her own original music projects, as well as being part of the Joe Sullivan 11tet, the Adrian Vedady Quartet and Kim Zombik’s Intimate Sky Project.

Kate Wyatt is a deeply invested music educator. She conducts masterclasses and is on faculty teaching jazz piano at Marianopolis College. Kate has been working as part of the Canadian Amateur Musicians/Musiciens Amateurs du Canada (CAMMAC) teaching team for over 10 years and has recently been asked to join the faculty at JazzWorks Canada.
